MEMORANDUM

15. February 1945

TO : Major Hans V. Tofte, Deputy Chief, Division of Intelligence Procurement

FROM : Jackson Mathews, Repr. 7th Army Detachment

SUBJECT: Progress Report on Fedala Operation

1. Training: The agent, Richards, is having his second J-E session today, 15th February, and expects to have his last tomorrow. This is the only training requested for this operation in London.

2. Documents: All documents have been ordered, through the Bach Unit, and will be finished in perhaps one week.

3. Equipment: This has been requested and Captain Palmer has promised me that it will be ready when the agent is ready to leave the U.K.

4. Finances: These are being furnished by the 7th Army Unit.

5. Pinpoint: This is the Munich area and has been approved.

6. Briefing: This agent has had all fundamental briefing. He will spend three days with officers of G-2, 8th A.G. and 7th Army, upon his return to France and before departure on mission.

7. Packing: Since packing this operation consists of putting a small instrument and personal effects into a briefcase, this is no problem.

8. Personal Papers: These are in order and in the agent's possession.

9. Tentative Dispatch Date: As soon as possible after beginning of moon period, 18th February. We estimate 25th February.

APPROVED FOR RELEASE

DATE: JUL 2000
